

Robert Smith Violin – Coatbridge, Scotland 1894

$4,200.00

Bears the label:

ROBERT SMITH
COATBRIDGE
ANNO 1894

Handmade violin from the 19th Century, Coatbridge, Scotland 1894. Coatbridge is a town in North Lanarkshire about nine miles east of Glasgow.

A complex panoply of sound projects clearly and crisply from this 19th century Scottish fiddle. The perfect instrument for the player yearning to play Scottish regional styles. The quick response of this violin will add to the fiddler's bowing and ornamentation. This is a fine violin from our shop that is for sale at $4,200.00

This violin is from the collection of fine instruments @ J.R. JUDD VIOLINS, WILLIAMSPORT, PENNSYLVANIA.

VISIT OUR WEBSITE @ www.jrjuddviolins.com for Hundreds of violins and bows

Included with this violin outfit:

Robert Smith 1894 handmade violin – value $4,200.00

J.R. Judd Carbon Fiber Veneer Violin bow – value $200.00

Bobelock Crescent Style #1047 Velour Wine interior Violin Case – value $190.00